FROM THE MAINTENANCE DEPT.

SNOW is around the corner please do not park your car over the curbs with the front of your car. We need to get tractors down the sidewalks to clear the snow off the walkways.

A Thanksgiving Story

A blind boy sat on the steps of a building with a hat by his feet. He held up a sign which said: "I am blind, please help."

There were only a few coins in the hat.

A man was walking by. He took a few coins from his pocket and dropped them into the hat. He then took the sign, turned it around, and wrote some words. He put the sign back so that everyone who walked by would see the new words.

Soon the hat began to fill up. A lot more people were giving money to the blind boy. That afternoon the man who had changed the sign came to see how things were.

The boy recognized his footsteps and asked, "Were you the one who changed my sign this morning? What did you write?"

The man said, "I only wrote the truth. I said what you said but in a different way. "I wrote: "Today is a beautiful day but cannot see it."

Both signs told the people that the boy was blind. But the first sign simply said the boy was blind. The second sign told people that they were so lucky that they were not blind. Should we be surprised that the second sign was more effective?

Moral of the story: Be thankful for what you have. Be creative. Be innovative. Think differently and positively. When life gives you 100 reasons to cry, show life that you have 1000 reasons to smile. Face your past without regret. Handle your present with confidence. Prepare for the future without fear. Keep the faith and drop the fear. Happy Thanksgiving to all!

Who is Lee Strobel?

Lee was born in Arlington Heights, Illinois, January 24, 1952. He is an American Christian author and a former investigative journalist for the Chicago Tribune and other newspapers for fourteen years. He was an atheist when he began investigating the Bible claims about Christ after his wife's conversation. Prompted by the results of his investigation, he became a Christian on November 8, 1981. Lee and his wife Leslie have two children (Alison and Kyle ) plus several grandchildren. He has written many books but his most noted is THE CASE FOR CHRIST, published September 1998. This book was made into a movie and released April 2017. It is about Lee's life being an atheist reporter who becomes a Christian. . The IL/ AL Wednesday morning Bible Study at 10:00 am in the chapel, will be doing a six week Bible Study on THE CASE FOR CHRIST. Make plans now to join us. Each session of this study begins with a video narration by Lee Strobel. We will be doing the six week study's on the following Wednesday's: October 31, November 7, 21, 28 December 5, 19. On Wednesday December 12th starting at 9:00 am in the chapel we will be showing the movie THE CASE FOR CHRIST.
